

DRUGS POLICY STATEMENT

Illegal substances come in many forms, but in general all will alter the way in which people consuming them perceive the world around them. Because of these effects, it is not hard to appreciate how those under the influence of illegal substances can be a danger both to themselves and to their colleagues. The fact remains that the effect of the substance will alter the work contribution individuals will be able to make and affect their performance within any working team.

As a consequence, anyone considered to be under the influence of illegal substances whilst at work will be subject to disciplinary proceedings.

If J Coffey Construction reasonably believes that anyone is under the influence of drugs at work as a result of an abuse problem, then the outcome of any disciplinary procedure will generally include requesting that the person seek help from one or more of the bodies listed below.

From time to time all of us suffer ailments for which legally prescribed or available drugs are required, either to rectify the ailment itself or to relieve the symptoms suffered. Whilst in many cases the ailment will be temporary, in others it will be longer-term. Just as with illegal substances, the drugs we take legally will have some form of side effect. It is of importance that, where this side effect is likely to affect your performance in any way, you are to notify J Coffey Construction.

This policy statement applies to all employees and other personnel engaged in J Coffey Construction operations:
